COUNT I:
INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 7,269,854

9. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each of Paragraph 1-8 above.

10. The '854 patent was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office on September 11, 2007 after full and fair examination. Plaintiff is the owner under the '854 patent with respect to Defendant, and possesses all right, title and interest in the '854 patent including the right to enforce the '854 patent, and the right to sue Defendant for infringement and recover past damages.

11. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant infringes the '854 patent either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents. Upon information and belief, Defendant has infringed and continues to infringe one or more claims of the '854 patent by making, using, and providing a method for executing user transaction requests for delivering digital media files via the Internet; said method comprising enabling users to generate transaction requests, communicating the transaction requests via the Internet to a transaction server, causing the transaction server to verify user identification information and to identify which of a plurality of media servers stores the requested media file, and causing the identified media server to uniquely encrypt the identified media file and to download the identified and encrypted media file to the requesting user directly via the Internet, and enabling only the requesting user to decrypt the media file for playback at the requesting user's site, in this district and elsewhere in the United States through its website, www.apple.com, and other Internet-related services. Upon information and belief, Defendant has infringed and continues to infringe one or more claims of the '854 patent by making, using, and providing a system for executing user transaction requests for delivering media files via the Internet, consisting of user sites with player/receivers, provider sites and a transaction server through its video sharing service, in this district and elsewhere in the United States through its website and other Internet-related services, including but not limited to music on-demand, streaming music, video on-demand and streaming video services through proprietary applications, including iTunes Store, iTunes Player, iTunes Radio and iTunes Everywhere.

14. Defendant's infringement of Plaintiff's rights under the '854 patent will continue to damage Plaintiff, causing irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law, unless enjoined by this Court.

JURY DEMAND

15. Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all issues.
